

David Fricker

Director-General, National Archives of Australia

invites you to the 2015 Constitution Day Speakers' Forum

Magna Carta – is it relevant to 21st-century Australian democracy?

Your story, our history

A panel discussion with eminent speakers

Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs

President, Australian Human Rights Commission

Professor Nicholas Cowdery AM, QC

Board Director, Rule of Law Institute and Chair,
Magna Carta Committee

Dr Rebecca Ananian-Welsh

Lecturer, TC Beirne School of Law,
University of Queensland

Neville Tiffen

Board Director, Transparency International Australia

Pia Waugh

Board Member, Open Knowledge Foundation
Australia and GovHack leader

Dr Nicholas Gruen

Chair, Open Knowledge Foundation Australia and CEO, Lateral Economics (Skype link from the UK).

Moderated by Paul Barclay, presenter and series producer of ABC Radio National's Big Ideas
Entertainment by Shortis and Simpson

Thursday 9 July, 6 for 6.30pm

The Great Hall

Australia Parliament House

Parliament Drive, Canberra ACT 2600

Bookings essential by Tuesday 7 July at <https://constitutiondayspeakersforum.eventbrite.com.au>

or phone (02) 6212 3600

Join the conversation online follow #C_Day2015 and @naagovau on Twitter, or visit <http://blog.naa.gov.au/constitutionday>

CONSTITUTION DAY 2015

Presented by the National Archives of Australia, in partnership with the Parliament of Australia and ABC Radio National's Big Ideas.

PARLIAMENT OF AUSTRALIA

Speaker of the House of Representatives & President of the Senate

This event is part of the National Archives of Australia 2015 Constitution Day Program.

